Seven Hundred Orphans Enjoy Mrs. Gusky's Bounteous Charity.

WILD ENJOYMENTS IN THE WOODS.

How the Little Ones Devoured Hundreds of Pounds of Meats.

PUNCH AND JUDY IN THE GREEN FIELDS

Poor little Ridge Avenue Asylum orphans They have the measles, and so couldn't go on the Gusky excursion yesterday, and oh my, what lots of good things they did miss.

They were the only orphans in the city, however, who were not of the gay party that on the J. M. Gusky boat bid farewell to heat and smoke, and steamed joyously away from the Wood street wharf at 9 o'clock A.M. bost, in honor of the occasion, was dressed out in an airy costume of patriotic colors, consisting principally of sashes and streamers that waved adleu to the city and kissed the breezes of the Monongahela in a truly artistic and loverlike manner. Early in the morning-in fact, by 8 o'clock-the tiny excursionists began to fill the streets leading to the wharf. Column after column of bright-faced little folks arrayed in their Sunday smiles and clothes, marshaled by pleasant-faced matrons and kindly lady managers, were successfully shered across the gangplank into the para disc of goodies and music.

A Thousand People Enjoyed the Trip. Seven hundred children in all stowed themselves away on the boat and, during the day, an enormous amount of sweet and substantial viands likewise. Happiness reigned supreme, with gratitude to Mrs. Gusky for the kindness and generosity that hade such enjoyment possible. Three hundred adult guests swelled the company to round proportions, but one that under the skillful management of Messrs. Levi De Wolf and K. Soloman and not an accident or a single bit of unpleasantness or neglect to chronicle. Indeed the kindness of these gentlemen defies description, but proves Mrs. Gusky a woman of keen foresight and discernment in selecting them as her representatives. The spirit exhibited by Messrs. De Wolf and Solomon was imparted to every official and employe on the steamer, even to Mr. John Dimiling, who personally superintended the serving of refreshments, and with a white apron that enveloped his generous sized form beamed with his usual good humer upon orphans and those that declared themselves orphans with equal engagingness. The Grand Army band immortalized itself by its delightful rendition of the members with the natty caps were the new feerer boys in heart on board; though vigued supreme, with gratitude to Mrs. embers with the natty caps were the of every boyish heart on board; though st be confessed it was a serious quesin mist be confessed it was a serious ques-ion with the youngsters whether it would be nicer to play in the band, be a Captain the Harry Gould, a mate like Charlie Gould, pilot like Frank Dowell or clerks like Messrs. Ed. Barret and Will Hallet. Feasted Like Little Lords.

reely had the boat successfully mounte the first look when the vast number of petit nests were invited below and there fairly letuged with sandwiches—ham and tongue cakes, lemonade and fruits. If by chance cakes, lemounde and fruits. If by chance a stray child escaped upstairs without both lands and his mouth full, he was quickly selzed and whisked down again, where the emission was rectified. That, be it understood, was only a lunch, and intended simply as a sample of what was to follow. The dinner, served in proper time, consisted of deviled crabs that so overcame a certain very plons gentleman by their exceeding goodness that in speaking of them he changed the last syllable "cd" to "ish" and inserted the word good before crabs; fried chicken browned to a turn; delicious bread and butter; pickles of all kinds; salads and golden brown coffee; foe cream and assorted cakes, with pastry inviting enough to make anyone dery indigestion and partake freely.

The entire amount of provisions consumed during the day equaled 150 gallons of cream, 700 large sponge cakes, 3,000 sandwiches, 200 loaves of bread, 125 tongues, 150 pounds of roast peef, 100 pounds roast veal, 600 fried spring chickens, I barrel of sugar, 800 pies, 200 watermelons and 4 sacks of peanuts.

A Day of Wonderful Enjoyment.

A Day of Wonderful Enjoyment. The destination, Blair's Grove, was reached shortly after 1 o'clock, and as the out pulled up to the moorings the 700 small boys and girls made 700 frantic runs at 700 small hats, and were in readiness at the first signal to break for the green grass and leafy trees. The musicians preceded the regitrees. The musicians preceded the regiment, and by playing their most inspiring marches made it easy for the active little feet to keep time. Once within the grove a sort of a close communion plan was adopted, and each asylum seemed to have a campail of its very own except when, after the recitations and songs, Mr. Punch and his famous wife Judy called a general assembly. Punch was unusually severe and a deep-dyed villath, poor Judy protested vigorously, but to no purpose. The matter will probably be decided in the divorce courts. The children many of them, by that very popular performance learned their first lessons in domestic unhappiness. At the conclusion of the bousehold scance, footballs, jumping ropes, swings and hammocks were brought into requisition. In the meantime the boat was being made ready for occupancy again, and by the use of brooms and dusters smilled the sweetest, cleanest sort of a welcome on the merrymakers who responded to the taneful whistle and came trooping back to the river.

No Medicine Was Needed.

No Medicine Was Needed. The feasting commenced immediately the large family was abourd again, and one stardy little youth who was sighing and cry-ing for more capacity admitted having the for more capacity admitted having enten six sandwiches, a whole spring chicken, two soft shell crabs, a half of watermeion, some pickled beets, some potato salad, California plums and peanuts, some sponge cake and two pieces of pie, the whole drowned in lemonade. The matrons all said their homes were well supplied with cramp medicine, indeed many of them had provided themselves with medicines in small quantities for the trip, but not a pelletor powder was needed. The return trip down the river was even more enjoyable thus the going up, as the sun kindly veiled his ardent glances and a delightful broeze became pronouncedly caressing. e became pronouncedly caressing, by rendering it an exquisite pleasure the reciprocal state of the same to devour the enchanting scenery as well as the delicious earables. Mr. McKnight, the obliging press agent of Gusky's store, prompted by a kindred feeling, took charge of the press representatives and diffused information with the same generosity that characterized every appointment of the excursion, and stated that the children who joined in a prolonged "Hurrah! for Mrs. Gusky?" as the boat reached its starting point were from the following institutions: St. Michael's Orphan Asylum; St. Joseph's Asylum, Troy Hill; Episcopal Church Home; Home of the Friendiess; Protestant Home for Boys; Children's Temporary Home; Co'ored Orphan Asylum; Children's Aid Seciety; the First Aliegheny Day Nursery and the Dorcas Nursery.

Yesterday afternoon the pressure on Charles Somers & Co. for transportation to Blaine was so heavy that they had to close and lock the doors of their offices. The crowd, constantly accumulating, not only filled the offices and stopped all other busi-ness, but it blockaded the sidewalk and congested Fourth avenue opposite the new postoffice. Finally the firm got its offices cleared, and thereafter admitted only a few applicants for transportation at a time. The general eagerness to go to Blaine is phenomenal, yet not surprising when the natural advantages of that particular point on the Monongahela are considered.

THE BENDERS WERE LYNCHED

Brother of the Murdered Dr. York Headed a Body of Secret Avengers. St. Joseph, July 15.-K. H. Randolph, an at torney of this city, who has just returned from Nickerson, Kan., says that he there made the acquaintance of Tom Doolittle, an old-time freighter, who told him a story of the famous Bender family which, if true, settles all question as to the whereabouts of the family of murderers. Doolittle says that the family of murderers. Doolittle says that after the murder of York a band of searchers, headed by the murdered man's brother, went to the Bender house and extorted a confession from the old woman. They then quietly proceeded to hang old man Bender, his wife and son to the rafters of the house. During this proceeding Kate Bender uttered some protest and was shot to death. After the family had been despatched, York's avengers took the bodies to the creek bed, some yards distant from the house, and buried them. The attention of the family living on an adjoining farm was attracted to the Bender place some days after by a starving calf, and then the absence of the family was first made known to the public. This gave rise to the report that the murderous family had fied to avoid punishment, and caused the prolonged search after them by the officers of the law.
